THE 1992 U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX REVENUE ACT is a comprehensive package of tax legislation that will have a significant impact on the U.S. economy. The Act is the result of a long and complex process of negotiation and compromise between the House and Senate. The Act is a landmark piece of legislation that will have a significant impact on the U.S. economy.

See Notes section on page 100 for details.

A member of the House, however, said the report was "biased and totally unrepresentative." But, after a House vote to approve the findings, saying "it is reasonable to expect" it will continue to "bring up these" questions in future sessions.

2 groups dump 'Da King'

By J. Edgar

MANILA (The Inquirer) — Two groups of lawmakers have dumped President Gloria Macapagal Arroyo, with one group calling her a "tyrant" and the other a "dictator." The groups are the House of Representatives and the Senate.

The House of Representatives, which is controlled by the opposition, has passed a resolution calling for the removal of President Arroyo from office. The resolution was passed by a vote of 217 to 10.

The Senate, which is controlled by the ruling party, has also passed a resolution calling for the removal of President Arroyo from office. The resolution was passed by a vote of 12 to 1.

The resolutions are the latest in a series of moves by lawmakers to challenge President Arroyo's leadership. In January, the House of Representatives passed a resolution calling for the removal of President Arroyo from office. The resolution was passed by a vote of 217 to 10.

Japan hostages freed; 2 want to stay on in Iraq

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Two Japanese hostages held by Iraqi insurgents for more than a year were freed Saturday, but two of them said they wanted to stay in Iraq to help build the country.

The two men, who were identified as Japanese, were released by a group of Iraqi insurgents in a video message. The group said they were releasing the men because they were tired of the war.

Europe rejects Hizbullah's truce offer

PARIS (AP) — European leaders Saturday rejected a peace proposal from Hizbullah, saying the group's demands for Israel's withdrawal from occupied territories were unrealistic.

The proposal, which was made public by Hizbullah's leader, Sheikh Hassan Nasrallah, called for a ceasefire and the withdrawal of Israeli troops from Lebanon.

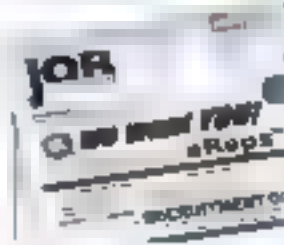

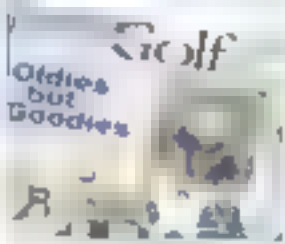

European leaders, including French President Nicolas Sarkozy and German Chancellor Angela Merkel, said the proposal did not meet the requirements for a lasting peace.

US extends tours of U.S. in Iraq
deaths tonight

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. military Saturday announced it had extended the tours of U.S. troops in Iraq, saying the deaths of two American soldiers last night were a reminder of the dangers of the conflict.

The announcement came as the U.S. military continued its operations in Iraq, including the search for weapons of mass destruction and the training of Iraqi forces.

The deaths of the two soldiers, who were killed in a car bombing in Baghdad, were the latest in a series of attacks on U.S. troops in Iraq.

1. The first step is to identify the key components of the system. This includes understanding the hardware, software, and data involved. The next step is to define the goals and objectives of the project. This will help to determine the scope of the work and the resources required. The third step is to develop a plan of action. This will outline the tasks to be completed, the timeline, and the roles of the team members. The final step is to implement the plan and monitor the progress. This will involve regular communication and reporting to ensure that the project is on track and that any issues are identified and resolved promptly.

The diagram illustrates the experimental setup for studying the effect of solution concentration on reaction rate. It features a reaction vessel equipped with a stirrer and a thermometer. The reaction is initiated by adding a reagent, and the rate is monitored by observing the change in concentration over time.

Budget deficit stays below target

By Dave C. Johnson

The U.S. budget deficit for the first three months of the fiscal year ended in February was $11.1 billion, or 0.2% of GDP, down from the target of 0.3% set by the President's budget.

Praxair Inc. Plans

Praxair Inc. is planning to acquire a 10% stake in the U.S. operations of Air Products and Chemicals Inc. (APC), a move that would give the company a significant presence in the industrial gases market, according to sources familiar with the deal. The acquisition is expected to be completed by the end of the year. Praxair, which is based in Dayton, Ohio, is a leading manufacturer of specialty gases. The deal is valued at approximately $1.5 billion. Air Products, based in Allentown, Pa., is a global leader in industrial gases. The acquisition is expected to create synergies between the two companies' operations and expand their market reach.

RAY BOY Coluanen
With Gretchen Barrera and Daughter
Dominique

High five!

Walt and Phoebe by Tim Yap

LIFTING a page from Rupert Murdoch's battle plan of injecting edge to stage a Fox-y power coup from leading networks, Ray Boy Coluanen threw a beach party to launch his slick new programming lineup for his newly acquired ABC.

Of course, his most valuable asset came from his new board of directors (from Binwag man Jose Park to media maverick Bobbi Barrera) who, like side him the whole night. I was referring to the diamonds in his life. Teachers Barrera and daughter Dominique, who had a field day at the tropical event again having identical glitzy costumes as their arms so they observed the rebirth that reminded guests of Cuzco all in Rio.

During all this excitement, psychodelic duo Ariel and Maverick graced the stage to introduce Ray Boy, who was apparently missing a bad tooth. But in-spite that, he revealed his network's basic plan—and that is to deliver the goods—on other way.

A video showed a regular Juan De La Cruz channel ending the night the mainstream fare of "blue screen shows." A particular channel flashes the end of a long term of "Kapamilya" (or which he looks at the viewer) makes a face and says, "Kapamilya, my ass!" Now are these real talk or what?

Then they proceeded to announce their shows—their stable of ground-breaking reality to face them. On Air hosted by Del Rodriguez in The Most... corners of Ariel and Maverick, or all ready network names of stars.

Another interesting show that they launched that night was "Wahay Beauty Queen," where they go all over the country in search of the new Misses of Pilipinas—who will end up being one million pesos richer.

And of course, proving that you can't have too much of a good thing, the radio also plays back in (ahem, ahem, in general TV).
